Section of Antitrust Law The American Bar Association Section of Antitrust Law is the leading professional organization for antitrust and competition law, trade regulation, consumer protection and economics. Antitrust laws protect consumers from anti-competitive business practices like price fixing, patent misuse, and forced group boycotting. The American Bar Association (ABA), founded August 21, 1878, is a voluntary bar association of lawyers and law students, which is not specific to any jurisdiction in the United States. The Antitrust Law Section Symposium is the published transcript of the Antitrust Law Section's symposium held at NYSBA's Annual Meeting in January.
