The Arab-Israeli Sector Legal and Political Status Pluralism and Sectoral Identity Development Meeting the Challenge. Israel is home to a highly diverse population from many different ethnic, religious, cultural and social backgrounds. a Arab ethnicity should not be confused with non-Arab ethnicities that are also native to the Arab world. b Not all Arabs are Muslims and not all Muslims are Arabs. Persian History and Its Kings. Persian history dates back to the development of ancient Mesopotamia, the land demarcated by the Tigris and Euphrates rivers. As with most tribes of southern Iraq, the main authority was the tribal shaikh. To this day, the shaikh of a Marsh Arab group will collect a tribute from his tribe in order to maintain the mudhif, the tribal guesthouse, which acts as the political, social, judicial and religious centre of Marsh Arabic life.
