

Download Journalists In The Making

A reporter and a camera operator from the investigative outlet "Schemes" are assaulted by officials during an interview. In February, journalists at "Schemes" and the investigative outlet Bihus report being surveilled in Kiev. The International Association of Religion Journalists is a global network of journalists promoting excellence in the coverage of religion and spirituality. The Tampa Bay Association of Black Journalists (TBABJ) is preparing for its annual journalism awards contest and scholarship event – the Griot Drum Awards & Scholarship Banquet. Bank of America recently received several awards for its Global Transaction Services (GTS) business. The recognition highlights the bank's leadership in digital solutions, innovation, service quality and global consistency across Asia, Europe, North America and South America.