

Download Mediator

Please enter the email address the Commission has on file for you in the box below. If your email address has changed in the past year, you must contact Commission staff at (919) 890-1415 and provide your new email address in order to access your Mediator Renewal Application. Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) All agencies are required to have an alternative dispute resolution (ADR) program. EEOC has certain requirements that all agencies must follow when developing ADR programs. If you're splitting-up or getting a divorce, family mediation can help you sort out arrangements with your ex or other family members. Family mediation helps all sorts of people: married and unmarried, parents, grandparents, step-parents and young people can all take part. Customers who select the standing order option will be automatically sent releases/updates, supplements or new editions when they become available. By selecting YES, I WISH TO BE ON STANDING ORDER you will receive any release/update, supplement or new edition published within three months of your purchase date at no charge. After the first three months of your purchase date you will receive a ...