Mister X was a shining beacon of 80s independent comics, and it featured some of the mediums most important artists. However, ultimately for all its efforts the series fell under its own weight--Mister X was built upon cheap scaffolding and macguffins--any promise of answers were merely misdirects (bad pun). About Mister X: The Modern Age. Limited to only 500 copies, each signed by Dean Motter, this deluxe hardcover collects, for the first time, every Mister X comic published by Dark Horse, including Condemned, Excavations, and Razed, along with never-before-seen behind-the-scenes material!
